The PROLOGUE

THE MEDIEVAL AGE, WHOSE COLORFUL ROMANTICISM FORMS THE CENTRAL THEME OF OUR BOOK, WAS AN EMBRYONIC PERIOD IN WHICH MANY PRESENT-DAY FORCES OF KNOWLEDGE AND THOUGHT WERE GENERATED. IT WAS AN AGE WHICH SAW THE BEGINNING OF MUCH OF OUR SCIENCE, ART, AND PHILOSOPHY; ITS CONTRIBUTIONS FORM THE BASIS FOR MUCH THAT WE LIKE TO DESIGNATE AS "MODERN."

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY YEARS OF PROGRESS HAVE FIRMLY ESTABLISHED MARYVILLE IN THE FIELD OF LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION; BUT WE AT MARYVILLE PREFER TO LOOK UPON THE PAST MERELY AS AN AGE OF FORMATION, A PERIOD AS EMBRYONIC TO THE COLLEGE AS THE MEDIEVAL AGE WAS TO MODERN CIVILIZATION. IT IS IN A SPIRIT OF ANTICIPATION, THEN, THAT THE CHILHOWEAN RECORDS THE YEAR NINETEEN THIRTY-NINE AS OUR ALMA MATER FACES TOWARD AN EVEN GREATER MARYVILLE.

DEDICATION

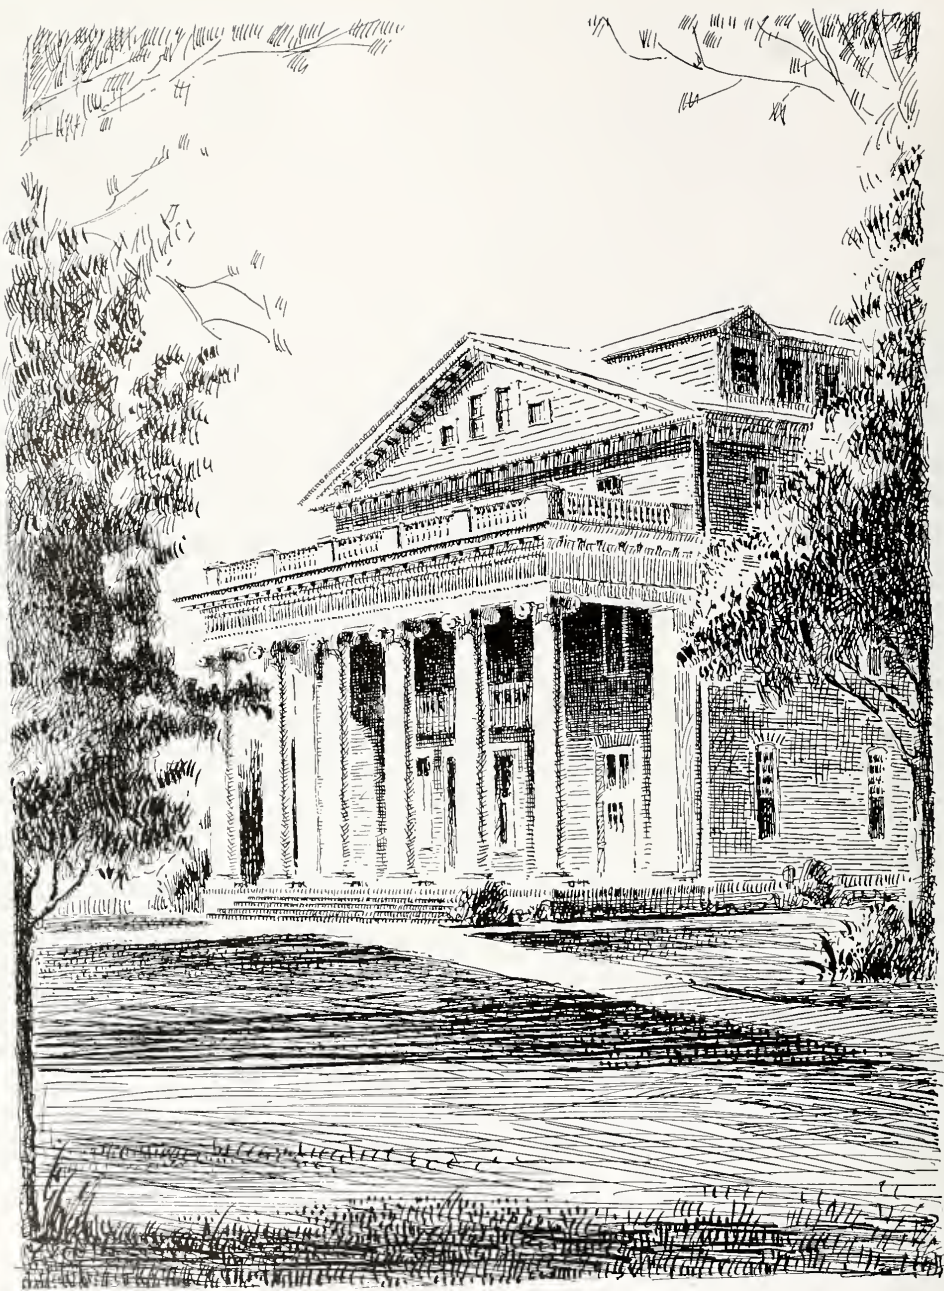

In honor of Miss Susan Allen Green, who for thirty-two years has headed the department of Biology, in appreciative recognition of her efficient administration, masterful teaching, and perennial youthfulness, we dedicate this thirty-third volume of the Chilhowean.

THE PRESIDENT

Inaugurated in 1930, President Lloyd has, through his moving personality and efficient administration, firmly established himself as one of the prominent Christian educators of the nation. Years of experience, first as instructor on the faculty of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, and later as pastor of churches in Illinois and Pennsylvania, have thoroughly prepared him for his position. Graduated from Maryville College in 1915, he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from McCormick Seminary in 1924, the title of Doctor of Divinity from his Alma Mater in 1929.

RALPH WALDO LLOYD
B.A., B.D., D.D.

THE PRESIDENT EMERITUS

Undoubtedly one of the most revered figures in the one hundred and twenty years of Maryville history, Dr. Wilson has been intimately connected with the college since 1873 in the successive roles of student, professor, president, and president emeritus. During his presidency, from 1901 to 1930, the college entered into its greatest period of progress. His service to his Alma Mater and to the cause of Christian education is one of the most remarkable in the history of American church-related institutions.

THE DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

The Department of Fine Arts offers majors in Music, Dramatic Art, and Art. Under the supervision of these three departmental divisions extracurricular activities, including recitals, play productions, and exhibits are presented.

Organizations of the music division are the Women's Glee Club, the Glee Singers, the Choir, the Band, the Orchestra, and the Disc Club. Outstanding presentations this year were Handel's "The Messiah" and Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Sorcerer." The Choir sings at the daily chapel services, at the Easter sunrise service, and at the Sunday evening vespers, while the Band and Orchestra culminate their year's activities with annual spring concerts. The Disc Club listens bi-weekly to recorded music of the great masters. Recitals, both informal and public, in piano, voice, and violin, are also features of the music division program.

Opportunity for public performances in dramatic art is given in plays, such as "Tovarich," presented by the College Players, "Hamlet," presented by the Senior Class, and the two productions of the literary societies. Another feature of the dramatic art division is the monthly studio tea. For informal practice of the principles learned in class there is the Confab Club, composed of members of the dramatic art class.

In addition to frequent exhibits of students' work, the art division arranges for exhibits sent by the American Federation of Arts, of which the department is a member. The Elizabeth Gowdy Baker Memorial Art Gallery, situated in Anderson Hall, is open daily to the public.

When our "Y" was established over fifty years ago, Kin Takahashi, a boy from the Land of the Rising Sun, became one of our first living symbols of the Red Triangle. The same unselfish spirit that he had, along with the faith and courage of a few other leaders, has crept silently through the years, building and broadening the Y. M. C. A.'s three-fold program of devotion, fellowship, and athletics.

Those of us who are here now, and those who will come another day, cannot fail to carry away some of that same spirit which finds its root in this year's motto:

"All things through Christ."

This year the Y. W. C. A. program was centered around a plan made at the annual retreat. The purpose of this plan was to include as many women of the college as possible in the activities of the organization. With this aim in view, a pamphlet was prepared and given to all new members. It explains the functions and purposes of the various committees and was planned as an aid in helping those interested to find their places in "Y" work.

There have been many activities in which the Y. W. C. A. has participated this year. The athletic program was augmented by a ping-pong tournament. The Artist Series, International Relations Club, "Big Sister" movement, interracial meetings, "M" Book, and Barnwarming were promoted wholly or in part by the work of the "Y."

These are the principles on which Nu Gamma Sigma was organized by the Y. W. C. A. for the purpose of introducing new girls to college life and campus activities. At the beginning of the college year each Nu Gamma leader meets with her group of ten new girls for four Sunday afternoons. These meetings are informal and friendly and give new girls an opportunity to become acquainted with others and to have the advice and help of an upperclass woman.

The final meeting of Nu Gamma is held in the college woods, where the girls have a short devotional service and then cook their breakfast over an open fire.

The youngest society on the Hill, perhaps, but certainly not the least, this Theta Epsilon. Her members have attained notable distinction in all fields: dramatics, forensics, music, journalism, and athletics. In high ideals and worthwhile influences, Thetas have reason to be proud of their standing.

Beginning with her rush week, which took the Freshmen on a tour of the New York high spots, Theta Epsilon's activities this year have been singularly successful. Teas, exchange programs with Alpha Sigma, her brother society, "Quality Street," and many original programs featured Theta's best talent.

Thetas this year have continued to uphold the high standards established by their predecessors since 1894. Their motto still stands:

"Si deus nobiscum,
Quis contra nos."

Alpha Sigma of 1938-39 has been like the Alpha Sigma of years past, when high ideals, big accomplishments, and wonderful fellowship characterized its activities. Since 1882, Alpha Sigma has occupied a prominent place on the campus and in the lives of its members. Originally organized for purely literary purposes, Alpha Sigma has swerved from that first purpose in order to create a more balanced program.

This year the society opened its program with a jamboree for old and new members in the gym. Musical programs, Professor Quiz Hour, special speakers, and the reading of original plays and stories were some of the outstanding Saturday evening programs.

Alpha Sigma has not fallen from its high standard, and the men it loses by graduation this year will carry on in the world with that same spirit of progressiveness that characterizes their society.

Since 1874, Bainonian has been an influential factor on the Hill. Throughout those sixty-five years Bainonian has remained true to "going forward," the name it was christened, sending its members into the foremost ranks of college activities. Bainonian Hall is the home of that spirit of friendliness and cooperation that is so necessary to any college campus.

High spot of Bainonian's program this year was its cooperation with Athenian in the production on February 24 of "You Can't Take It With You," a hilarious comedy by Kaufman and Hart. Exchange programs, "Vox Pop," imitations, musicales, a "backwards" meeting were all part of the society's undertakings in weekly meetings.

Bainonian girls still sing, "Our strong bond shall ne'er be broken, sealed by friendship's tie."

Athenian Literary Society has the distinction of being the oldest society on the campus and the only one to retain the word "literary" in its name. It was founded in 1868, and its interests, although nominally literary, have been extended to other activities.

Athenian, this year, has once more upheld the qualities of leadership in officary duties, as well as in thought and scholastic attainment, that have marked it as an outstanding society through the years. Athenians have achieved high places in journalism, Y. M. C. A. work, student government, athletics, and other activities. At every turn they have imparted to the campus some of that spirit of friendship, genuineness, and cheerfulness that permeates Athenian Hall.

Athenian began the year with a wiener roast in the college woods for the purpose of meeting the new men; there followed such programs as "The Girl I Left Behind Me Contest," the reading of original papers, "Information, Please," faculty speakers, and exchange programs with the sister society, Bainonian.

Maryville's traditional rival, Carson-Newman, pleased everyone, for the boys won a close victory in one of the hardest games of the year.

However, the above resume does not tell the real story that lies behind the 1938 season. Besides being outweighed in every game, the Scots had to contend with a series of injuries that would have ruined the spirit of many a less determined team. Before the '38 campaign was under way, Maryville suffered the loss of lettermen McCurry and Lowe. McCurry, 220-pound sophomore tackle, received a broken ankle, while Lowe was eliminated by a broken leg received in practice.

The season opened against Kentucky. In spite of the fact that they were playing a team out of their class, the Scots fought the whole way and in the last quarter, with the score 39-0 against them, pulled the famed "sleeper" play to score against the Wildcats, making the final score 46-7. Getting back into their own class, the Highlanders showed their fight and power with consecutive wins over Tusculum, Milligan, and Tennessee Wesleyan.

Thus far the Highlander attack had been built around the spectacular playing of J. D. Hughes, All-Conference back; thus things looked black when Hughes had to be taken from the lineup due to a leg injury. . . . In spite of a determined fourth quarter drive, the Scots failed to produce a much-needed tally and so lost their next game to Union College. . . . Wilson Field was the scene of utter despair the next Friday night, when the Scots were unable to stem Lenoir-Rhyne's last minute drive and had to be content with a 12-12 tie. . . . The mighty King Tornado proved to be the Highlanders' next master and walked off the field with a 13-6 victory. . . . The game against East Tennessee Teachers was probably the most exciting from the spectator's view and resulted in a 20-13 win for the "Profs" in spite of a thrilling 90-yard sprint by Morton of Maryville. . . . After a defeat by the Cumberland "Lawyers," Coach Honaker's boys closed the season by trouncing Carson-Newman, 7-0.

Next year's team will be faced with the task of replacing such lettermen as Captain Burris, S. K. Taylor, Jenkins, and Napier.

HIGHLANDER STARS OF 1938

Al Burris, able captain of the 1938 Highlanders, gained the respect and admiration of the whole conference by the way in which he ran the team from his quarterback position, and proved to be one of the most consistent ground-gainers on the squad. . . . Obie Jenkins, another Senior who will be missed next season, played his third year of varsity football and, as usual, was one of the mainstays of the line. . . . Bill Napier, likewise a tackle, earned his place through strong defensive play. . . . S. K. Taylor was the heaviest man in the Scot line and used his weight to plug many a gap. . . . Jim Etheredge, scheduled to pilot next year's team, was the spark-plug of the squad. Always fighting, he has become famous for his uncanny ability to snatch difficult passes. . . . Kramer, the new alternate captain, is one of those rare footballers who can stand up under punishment for the entire 60 minutes and still give in return. He was the Gibraltar of the line and never absent from the lineup. . . . Wilburn served as center and we might safely say that on defense he made more tackles than any other player. . . . Hughes was Maryville's All-Conference halfback and by his drive and fight accounted for a great many of the touchdowns made. . . . Honaker made up for his lack of size with passing and kicking that were main factors in Maryville's victories. . . . Tom Taylor made his end one to be feared because of his fight and skilful defensive play. . . . Burns, this year, definitely disproved the myth that a small man can't make good in the line. . . . Morton and Garner were fast, elusive backs who turned in performances that promise even more for the future. . . . E. B. Smith is gaining the reputation of a dead-eye center, whose sturdy defense play is also to be counted on. . . . Bill Baird, one of Maryville's most versatile athletes, achieved recognition at end and will be counted on heavily next year. Tipton, Henschen, Boydsen Baird, Shelfer, and Hunt gained much experience this year and can be counted on to fill important spots next season. . . . Joe Swift carried on his able shoulders the job of manager, serving well and efficiently throughout the season.

THE SEASON

The 1939 basketball team proved to be the surprise of the year for Maryville sport fans. Despite the fact that only one of the five regulars was a six-footer, while the other four were all under five feet, nine inches, these spirited Scots made up for their lack of height with speed and fight and first-class ball handling. The Highlanders won their first eight games and seemed destined for a perfect season, when they took to the road and were beaten on successive nights by L. M. U. and Carson-Newman. However, both these defeats were avenged by victories in the return games. Continuing their drive for the conference championship, the plucky Scots earned wins over their next three conference foes, but hopes faded when they lost the crucial game to a scrappy Milligan team by the narrow margin of two points. Thus Milligan won the conference crown for the second consecutive year. Maryville, with seven conference victories and six defeats, ended the season in third place.

The season was packed with thrills. There are not many who will soon forget that game with Carson-Newman, when the fighting Scots overcame a lead of ten points to win by one point in the last thirty seconds of play . . . the game, two nights later, in which a tall Milligan team was outpassed and outmaneuvered to give the Highlanders a well-deserved two-point victory . . . the last-minute win against a highly rated five from Emory-Henry, brought about by sheer determination on the part of a Maryville team that would not give up. Accuracy, speed, fight, and smooth-functioning teamwork—all characterized the play of this year's team.

Outstanding for Maryville was the playing of the three Baird brothers, Weldon, Boydson, and Bill. Their enthusiasm and all-around brilliant playing were the chief factors in the Scotties' success. Russell continued his steady work at the center position and was the highest individual scorer. Scot Honaker's excellent floor work and speedy passing, along with Etheredge's outstanding defensive play, earned for them the admiration of fans and players alike.

CONFERENCE TRACK CHAMPIONS

Led by the indomitable Roy Talmage and Captain Weldon Baird, the 1938 Scotty trackmen defeated L. M. U., Milligan, and Chattanooga, while losing to Davidson and Tennessee. They then climaxed their season by grabbing all honors and the Smoky Mountain championship in the conference meet and running a close second in the state meet at Knoxville.

During the course of the season, Talmage captured fifteen first places, closely followed by the Baird brothers, Weldon, Bill, and Boydson, who accounted for fourteen. The Bairds, Talmage, Rugh, Orr, Lloyd, Steakley, Rae, and others combined to equal or better six conference records.

Talmage ran the century in 10 seconds flat to equal the conference record; Weldon Baird set a new record in the half-mile by running the distance in 1:58; Rugh shattered the two-mile mark with a time of 10:8.2; Boydson Baird ran the mile in 4:36.2 to break the existing record; Rae equaled the high mark in the pole vault with a jump of 11 feet, 3 inches; and the fast-stepping quartet of Lloyd, Steakley, Bill Baird, and Orr set a mile relay record of 3:27.

Lettermen are Talmage, W. Baird, William Baird, B. Baird, Rugh, Gray, Orr, Morgan, Steakley, Lloyd, Rae, Chandler, Tulloch, Propst, Etheredge, Odell, and Manager Byrne.

ON THE DIAMOND

CONFERENCE BASEBALL CHAMPIONS

The 1938 baseball team was one of the greatest Maryville has produced. Coach Honaker put on the field an all-around squad that had a strong man for every position. As a result, the Scots won twenty out of twenty-three games while engaging some of the best teams of the surrounding states. They also gained the coveted Smoky Mountain Conference championship by winning eleven out of twelve conference games. Our Highlander aggregation scored 169 runs to their opponents' 64.

As with all baseball teams, the pitching staff bore much of the burden, and the excellent performances turned in by Collins, Parker, and Wilburn are worthy of special note. Parker and Wilburn were also mainstays in the outfield when not pitching. The infield was made up of Hernandez, Black, Odell, and Hughes. The first three named were veterans and their dependable, cooperative functioning was a joy to behold. Evers was the mainstay behind the plate and his unerring pegs caught many a stealing base-runner. Honaker, Davis, and Wicklund also played well and earned their letters.

This season brought to a close the playing careers of six of Maryville's best men—Collins, Parker, Black, Odell, Hernandez, and Evers. Their places will be hard to fill.

1939 WRESTLING SEASON

Although they began the season with many inexperienced men on the squad, Coach Thrower's matmen ended the 1939 campaign tied with Vanderbilt for the state intercollegiate wrestling title. Captain Meares, Everett, and Hahn were the only veterans back, but by the middle of the season the new men shaped up to help them through a successful season marred by only two defeats.

The opener was lost to a championship North Carolina State team, but our grapplers came back in the next meet to defeat Vanderbilt, last year's champions. Knoxville "Y" was next polished off in an exciting match. Vandy then avenged its defeat by handing the Scotties a licking in their return bout. The season closed with two wins from Tennessee and another from Knoxville "Y."

Graduation will take only two lettermen, Meares and Judy. With such outstanding varsity men as Evaul, Turner, McDaniels, Everett, Hahn, and Henschen returning, a strong team should represent Maryville next year and stand a great chance of recapturing the coveted state championship crown.

TENNIS

The 1938 tennis team, led by the aggressive Captain Colombo, enjoyed one of its most successful seasons. Although poor weather prevented many of the matches from being played, the Scots came through with seven victories, one tie, and three defeats. Some of these victories were scored against reputedly strong teams of the South, so the record of Coach Fischbach's team this year is an enviable one.

The consistently unbeatable stroking of Gillingham and Morrow was the main factor in the Scotties' success, accompanied, of course, by steady playing on the part of Colombo, Van Cise, McCammon, and Akana. Despite the loss of many of the best players, the netmen are looking eagerly forward to a continuation of this good record in 1939.

SWIMMING

Handicapped by the loss of Coach Fischbach, and with only three lettermen around which to build a team, the 1939 swimming team nevertheless made a showing that was far from poor. Under the able guidance of Coach Gillingham and Captain Findlay, the team shaped up and went through a tough schedule, which included meets with Tennessee, Kentucky, Auburn, Emory, Tusculum, and the Chattanooga and Knoxville Y. M. C. A. teams. Outstanding for the Scots were Findlay and Cross in the free-style events, Akana in the breast-stroke, and Birmingham in the diving. None of this year's lettermen will be lost through graduation, so the prospects for the 1940 season are bright.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The 1938 harriers, under the able leadership of Captain Gene Orr, went through a successful season, even though their schedule included only three meets. They journeyed first to Georgia Tech, where they were defeated, but avenged that loss with two decisive victories over the University of Tennessee.

Letters were given this year for the first time, and the squad hopes next year to expand its schedule. Baird, Gray, and Orr were the mainstays of the team, but all three will be lost by graduation. However, Mooney, Davies, and Lloyd also lettered and will be back to carry on for the Highlanders.

"M" CLUB

The purpose of the "M" Club is to promote interest in women's sports. It is composed of approximately thirty girls who have won their varsity letters in intramural sports. The letters are awarded on a basis of points earned for competition in athletic events, hiking, observation of health rules, and scholastic standing. The varsity letter is awarded for 400 points, while 500 points earns a sweater and letter. The club meets once a month and undertakes several projects during the year. This year they have sponsored the purchasing of athletic suits for the Freshman and Sophomore teams.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

MRS. EVELYN NORTON QUEENER
Physical Training Instructor

Since 1929 the women's athletic program has consisted entirely of intramural competition, due to a lack of intercollegiate competition in varsity sports. Various types of letters are awarded, based on a point system wherein points are given for participation in a certain number of sports.

The first sport to take place in 1938-39 was speed ball. Speed ball is a combination of soccer and basketball, and is played on an indoor court. A three-game series was played between teams representing the Freshman Class, the Sophomore Class, and a combination of the Junior and Senior Classes. The third game found the Freshmen and Sophomores battling it out in a closely contested game, the Freshmen emerging victorious by a score of 7-6.

Baseball was next in order, with three teams again competing in a four-game series. The Junior-Senior women proved the strongest, winning two out of their three games. Their only competition came from the Freshman Class, and this late in the season.

In the Fall of 1938 a three-game soccer series was held to determine the champions. The game has been adapted to an indoor floor, but for the most part is like the outdoor game. The final game of the series was a hard-fought one between the Junior-Seniors and the Sophomores. The Junior-Seniors were able to eke out a 3-2 victory.

The final class competition was a six-game series in basketball. The Freshmen women came through the series undefeated to take the championship. Starring for the champs was Jenkins, with Persing and Hayes assisting in the scoring.

Tournaments were held in tennis and aerial darts to determine individual champions. The tennis tourney, held in the Fall of 1938, was won by Naberhuis, a freshman. Those going into the semi-finals were Gaultney, Corry, Naberhuis, and Tyndall. In the finals Naberhuis beat Corry in a three-set match. Naberhuis also was crowned aerial dart champion after defeating Storey and Tyndall in the finals.

Other athletic activities in which women participate are swimming, track, and gymnastics. Points are awarded to those taking part. The whole purpose of the women's athletic program is to permit competition, in spite of the lack of intercollegiate sports, and to encourage as many women as possible to enter into healthful athletic activities.
